Tokai Carbon announces new price of Specialty Graphite Products

Tokai Carbon today announces the price increase for its Specialty Graphite Products as described below.

1. The price increase outline

- The new price will be effective from the new orders received on or after July 1st, 2010 until further notice.
- It will be in a range from 10 to 20% out of the current price.
- It will be applied to both domestic and overseas market.

2. The price increase background

- The new price increase reflects the sharply increasing demand for Specialty Graphite Products as well as the need to redress the sunken prices.
- And it is to recover the lost margin due to the last raw material cost increases.
